

Jesus' Motley Crew*

St. Vincent de Paul Parish Mission

An All-Parish Mission occurs when the entire St. Vincent de Paul community gathers to renew, refresh and re-energize our Catholic faith. It is easy to be burdened by the struggles of everyday life. The Parish Mission is a time for us to gather in one place, listen to the inspiring words of a speaker, and pray with and for each other.

Part 1: Jesus Working through Our Weakness

Reflection on St. Peter and St. Paul and how God works through their weakness to do great things.

Sunday, November 16, 2014

6:30–8:00pm (Desserts to follow)

“The call to do great things for God begins with discovering our great need for God. I hope many will come to receive the Love of Jesus this night.” – Bishop Cozzens

Speaker: Bishop Andrew Cozzens
Bishop Cozzens is the newest bishop to the Archdiocese, ordained on December 9, 2013. He is a very personable speaker with a lot of lived experience!
