

JEFF CAVINS, Director of Evangelization for the Archdiocese of St. Paul and Minneapolis and current Totino-Grace parent, is an internationally known speaker and author, known for his deep love for Jesus Christ, his infectious enthusiasm, and his clear and engaging communication of the Catholic faith. Mr. Cavins is the founder of the Great Adventure Catholic Bible Study, a popular Catholic Bible study program and has also authored other books and videos about the faith. He hosted long-running programs on EWTN, a national Catholic television network, as well as Relevant Radio, a national Catholic radio network. Since its founding in 2008, Mr. Cavins has served as director of The Archbishop Harry J. Flynn Catechetical Institute, a program of the Saint Paul Seminary.

FAITH

“Faith of our Children:
A Partnership of School and Home”

SPEAKER: Mr. Jeff Cavins

WHEN: December 3, 2014
at 7:00 p.m.

WHERE: Totino-Grace
Gymnasium

TOTINO-GRACE HIGH-SCHOOL
SPEAKER SERIES FOR PARENTS

ALL ARE WELCOME.

The Speaker Series is FREE and open to the public.

Please join Totino-Grace High School as we begin an annual speaker series for parents, focused on the four key elements of our mission: learning, faith, service, community. The topics and speakers will change from year to year, but our focus will always be on engaging parents, both current and prospective, in the four pillars of our mission. All are welcome. The Speaker Series will take place in the Totino-Grace gymnasium and is free and open to the public.

Totino-Grace